

THE POWER OF DEMOCRACY & THE LAW 7 AREAS OF POWER AND INFLUENCE

The Executive Branch of our Government has become more and more Militant and aggressive with it's approach to law enforcement and the rights of American citizens, since the signing into law of the "Patriot Act" by President George W. Bush on October 26, 2001. With all of the Propaganda Hype, about "the threat of terrorism, Terrorist threats against Americans at home and abroad, Law Enforcement Officials have also become more aggressive with their procedures and the use of deadly force when interacting with the public and potential suspects. The relationship between law Enforcement and the public is indifferent.

THE POWER OF DEMOCRACY & THE LAW 7 AREAS OF POWER AND INFLUENCE

Acts of police brutality has increased over the past few years, especially, in the black Community. In 2016, over 250 African Americans were shot and killed by police in this country. Other acts of police brutality have been on the increase against unarmed black people.