

MODERN MENTAL SLAVERY IN AMERICA

POPULATION CONTROL

Incarceration is a sure way that our government and White Corporate America can institute it's plan of "Modern Slavery". Although, incarceration is a harsh, legal form of slavery, it's limited to relying on a person to be arrested, convicted and sentenced to prison in order to be effective. From 1989 to 2014, I've been either incarcerated in a local county, city jail, a Federal or State Prison, or, under some form of Probation or Parole Conditions. When a person is released from jail or prison, sent to a halfway house or released under Parole or Probation release conditions, that person is still under the control of the US Attorney's Office and the Penal system. Of the 3 Federal Prisons, 3 State Prisons, and 4 local and County Jails that I've been incarcerated in, the majority prison population was always African American First, Caucasian, second, Hispanic, third and Asian last. Asians have always been the lowest percentage of the total prison population, I guess it's just another ancient, Chinese secret. However, some of those numbers have changed since I was last incarcerated. Corporate America has placed prison stock as a major investment on Wall street, yep!, believe it or not, slavery is still big business in America. Today, in the 21st Century, you can invest in prison stock on Wall Street, just like any
